Donation Instructions/Checklist

If you are making booties for a specific panel, be sure to make them in the designated colors (embellish as desired), and give them to the Panel Maker with your permissions form. This will ensure that your panel fits into the final installation perfectly.

If you are mailing individual booties, make them WHITE, and email mary@maryvanecke.com for a mailing address for someone who will sew them onto panels, OR find some friends to make your own panel.

For each pair of booties, please do the following:

1. If you made your baby shoes in memory or in honor of someone, write that on a strip of white fabric, ribbon, non-woven, or paper. Use an ink pen or permanent fabric marker (preferred). Handwrite (or use some other image transfer technique) your tribute on the strip like this:

| | |
|---------------------|----------------------|
| In Memory of | Baby Smith |
| In Honor of | Smith Parents |

Fold the strip at the center line and stitch the strip and the pair of baby booties together with the strip protruding between them.

2. STITCH or TIE/TACK each pair together SECURELY with strong (heavy polyester) thread or yarn. Please don't skip this step!
3. Consider including a $1 donation for each pair of baby booties you contribute. I will use these donations to cover the costs of storage, shipping, signage, and other materials related to exhibiting TheMourningProject.com. I will take no salary for working on the project. If you wish to write a check, make it out to Mary Vanecke (TheMourningProject.com is not incorporated as a charity.) Your donation is not tax deductible.
5. Complete the Permissions/Donation Form and send it with your booties. You need only complete one form for multiple pairs.
6. Send/give your completed Permissions/Donation Form with baby booties to the person who will sew your booties onto a panel. Or email mary@maryvanecke.com to get a mailing address for a panel maker who will sew the booties onto a panel for you.
